This Week in the Law School

This Is Wellness Week!

The Law School is hosting Wellness Week from March 26-30. We are offering traditional and not-so-traditional programming for all students in an attempt to help you improve your overall look at wellness. The week will include stress/resilience sessions, a service provider fair (nutrition, wellness education, outdoor adventures, exercise classes, and state bar association agencies — we are a law school after all!), a work-life balance panel, and some abbreviated classes/demonstrations in yoga, pilates, tai chi, and mindfulness meditation. See listings for each day below.

Journal of Law and Social Equality Inaugural Symposium

The Law School's newest journal gets under way with this event on Friday.

Current Issues in LGBTQ and Immigration Advocacy featuring Christopher Daley

Join Christopher Daley, Access to Justice, and the newly established LGBTQ and Immigration Clinical Projects for a discussion of emerging issues in LGBTQ and Immigration law. Christopher Daley is the Deputy Executive Director of Just Detention International, a Washington D.C.-based health and human rights organization that seeks to end sexual abuse in all forms of detention. For more than 15 years, Mr. Daley has been active in advancing civil rights and public health issues. He is a founder and the inaugural Director of California's Transgender Law Center, a multi-cultural, multi-disciplinary agency working to end discrimination and harassment of transgender people and their families. Mr. Daley has also worked on issues of immigrants' rights, ending homelessness, public benefits advocacy, HIV education and prevention, and abuse of police power. Mr. Daley will join us virtually from D.C. Lunch will be provided. Room 125, noon.

Teaching Assistantships for 2012-13 Academic Year

The Graduate Legal Studies Program will be hiring teaching assistants for the 2012-13 academic year. The teaching assistants will work with international students in their legal writing and research course, the practicum and academic legal writing. Applicants must be available for approximately ten hours each week, possess strong research and writing skills, and while previous teaching experience is preferable, it is not required. Persons selected to fill these positions must be available for orientation beginning on August 15. Teaching assistants will be appointed on a semester basis, with reappointment in the spring conditioned upon performance in the fall. The stipend per semester is $1,500.00

Please include a cover letter, resume, writing sample and references in your application packet, and indicate your availability for an interview. Applications are due no later than March 30 and should be submitted to:

*Professor Lisa A. Farnsworth
Director of Graduate Legal Studies
Indiana University Maurer School of Law
Room 220
Bloomington, IN 47405*

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

The Indiana Law Annotated (ILA) is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week. Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Max Exter (av@exchange.iu.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
